Sign up for a member account on digitalcurationexchange.org and start participating in the exchange of digital curation ideas. More than just a resting place for materials, DCE serves as a starting point for discussions on topics about and for digital curation. These topics include education materials, tools, file formats, hardware, software, and storage media, to name a few. Practitioners, educators, and researchers are welcome to join and participate.

For more information, contact Heather Bowden, Carolina Digital Curation Doctoral Fellow, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, hbowden[at]email[dot]unc[dot]edu

The Digital Curation Exchange is supported by IMLS funds awarded to the Closing the Digital Curation Gap Project [IMLS Sponsor Award #LG-05-09-0040] and was initiated under the DigCCurr II project at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, School of Information & Library Science.