

IDCC11 Pre-Conference Workshop: Data Management Planning

Monday 5 December 2011, 1.30pm – 5.00pm, Marriott Royal Hotel, Bristol (UK)

Short Description

A discussion and analysis of recent trends and developments in data management planning on both sides of the Atlantic, with the people behind DMP Tool (USA) and DMP Online (UK).

Organisers / Speakers

DCC / DMP Online - Martin Donnelly (University of Edinburgh), Sarah Jones (University of Glasgow), Adrian Richardson (University of Edinburgh)

DMP Tool - Sherry Lake (University of Virginia), Bill Michener (DataONE at University of New Mexico), Sarah Shreeves (University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign)

Free to attend. Register at <http://www.dcc.ac.uk/events/idcc11/workshops>
(N.B. workshop registration is separate from the Conference registration!)

Programme

Time	Session	Speaker / Facilitator
1.30 pm	Welcome and overview	Martin Donnelly
1.40 pm	Policies update (UK)	Sarah Jones
2.00 pm	Policies update (US) *	Sherry Lake
2.20 pm	Q&A and discussion re. DMP policies and future directions	Facilitator: Martin Donnelly
2.45 pm	Break
3.15 pm	DMP Online (UK): update and demo	Adrian Richardson
3.45 pm	DMP Tool (US): update and demo	Sarah Shreeves
4.15pm	Q&A / discussion re. the DMP tools and future directions	Facilitator: Martin Donnelly
4.45pm	Summary and close	Bill Michener

* More detail:

- Background of how the US Funding Agencies (NSF & NIH specifically) went from requiring sharing of data to requiring Data Management Plans
- NSF Generic DM Requirement
- NSF Division/Directorate Guidance
- NIH
- National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH -Office of Digital Humanities)
- Other US Funding Agencies (Gordon and Betty Moore Foundation, IMLS, others?)