

DataONE Workshop

IDCC 14

Amber Budden, U New Mexico
Chris Jones, U CA Santa Barbara
Dave Vieglais, U Kansas
Bruce Wilson, U Tennessee

Workshop Objectives

- Gain a solid understanding of DataONE both as a community and as cyberinfrastructure
- Understand the potential value of becoming a member node and/or contributing to the Investigator Toolkit
- Understand what to do to become a MN and continue participating in DataONE
- Grow the DataONE community

Agenda

8:30 Welcome and Introductions (Bruce)

8:50 Overview of DataONE (Bruce)

9:30 Data and Data Management (Amber)

10:00 Break

10:15 Identifiers and Metadata (Chris)

10:45 DataONE Infrastructure (Dave)

12:00 Lunch

1:15 Hands on exploring DataONE (Dave, Chris)

2:15 Why be a MN? And how? (Bruce)

3:00 Break

3:15 MN continued (Bruce)

4:00 Ongoing participation in DataONE (Amber)

4:30 Open discussion (all)

Introductions

- Your name, institution, and location
- Research or professional interests/background
- What do you want from today?

Ground “rules”

- This is your workshop
- Ask questions
- You’ll get copies of the materials