About the organisers

- We're the DMP Roadmap team – an international collaboration behind the most widely-used systems for creating & making use of data management plans
- Partners have engaged with RDA since before its launch 10 years ago
- We organised the session at plenary 9 (Barcelona) which created the DMP working groups
 - We want to work collaboratively

"Because
good research needs good data"

About today

- We're going to hear about:
 - How we got to where we are today
 - What's available now in roadmap-based services
 - What's planned for the future
 - Some case studies from around the world
 - What should we be looking at next?
- This will inform the relevant RDA groups and the DMP Roadmap development teams
- The conversations start here – but they don't end here

Practicalities

- I am your chair – keeping presenters to time, managing questions
- The DCC & RDA both have codes of conduct for events; please respect the codes and (more importantly) each other

<https://www.dcc.ac.uk/events/codeofconduct>

- We have about 100 people joining online – if you join from here in the room remember to mute speakers/mic
- For local attendees – lunch is available afterwards. Do stay and take the opportunity to talk with us!
