

2nd Digital Curation Centre Regional Roadshow : Yorkshire

Digital Curation 101 Lite: How to Manage Research Data

Date: Thursday 3 March 2011

Venue: Halifax Conference Centre, Endcliffe Village, Endcliffe Vale Road, Sheffield, S10 3ER

Audience: digital repository managers, senior staff from library, information services, data librarians, research support staff, data protection staff, ethics committee members

10:45	Arrival Coffee / Tea
11.00	Data management support: making the most of limited resources This session will explore existing policies, codes of practice, and support that can be tapped into when making the case for data management within your institution.	Joy Davidson, DCC
11:20	Introduction data management mandates and policies Data management planning is fast becoming a requirement for the majority of funding bodies and research councils. This session will explore the current requirements landscape and future directions for data management planning.	Sarah Jones, DCC
11:40	Exercise 1 (15 minutes) Review existing institutional policies, codes of practice, and/or funding body mandates that may apply to your work Exercise 2 (15 minutes) Identify current points of support provision and/or services that might be involved in data management at your institution	Facilitators: Joy Davidson, Sarah Jones, and Martin Donnelly, DCC
12:15	Data Management Planning This session uses the DCC's Checklist headings to explore specific aspects of data management that you may wish to address when developing your plans, as well as the players involved at each stage.	Martin Donnelly, DCC
12:40	Selection and Appraisal Managing data requires time and effort. To make sure that your resources are being used to best effect, you need to clearly identify which data has value and	Joy Davidson, DCC justifies your investment. This session will investigate some of the issues involved with selection and appraisal of data to help you determine what data you will commit to managing and curating for the longer-term.

13:00	Lunch
13.30	Data Licensing This session will feature an introduction to data licensing and will provide participants with an awareness of why licensing data is important, the impact licences have on future research, and the potential pitfalls to avoid.	Alex Ball, DCC
13:50	Group exercise Based on the outcomes of the previous sessions and their own research experience, participants will have an opportunity to work in groups to develop a data management plan.	Facilitators: Joy Davidson, Sarah Jones, and Martin Donnelly, DCC
14:40	Feedback on group exercise	Facilitators: Joy Davidson, Sarah Jones, and Martin Donnelly, DCC
14:50	Summing up and close	Joy Davidson